

March 14, 2022

To: Julia Hegarty, U.S. Department of Energy
John Cymbalsky, U.S. Department of Energy

From: Kyle Bergeron, Regulatory Engineer, AHRI

Re: Ex Parte Communication on Notice of Proposed Rulemaking – Energy
Conservation Program for Appliance Standards: Test Procedure for Residential
Water Heaters Docket EERE-2019-BT-TP-0032

On March 9, 2022, AHRI staff and members of the AHRI Water Heater Regulatory and Policy Committee met with representatives from the Department of Energy (DOE) to discuss the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking on Energy Conservation for Appliance Standards: Test Procedures for Residential Water Heaters, Docket Number EERE-2019-BT-0032. The meeting was held via teleconference. A list of attendees is provided below:

Attendees:

Julia Hagerty, DOE
John Cymbalsky, DOE
Peter Cochran, DOE
Priyanka Satpute, Guidehouse
Adam Darlington, Guidehouse
Nate Steel, Guidehouse
Drew Harris, Guidehouse

Kyle Bergeron, AHRI
Marie Carpizo, AHRI
Aaron Heishman, AHRI
Helen Walter-Terrinoni, AHRI

Josh Greene, A.O. Smith
Greg Reynolds, A.O. Smith
Brian Pickett, Ariston
Steve Barnard, Bosch
Eric Truskoski, Bradford White
Bob Wolfer, Bradford White
Paul Hikspoors, Giant
Michael Hubbard, PVI
Joe Boros, Rheem
Karen Myers, Rheem
James Phillips, Rheem

James Abraham
Kristen Koernig

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Kyle Bergeron". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping horizontal line extending to the right.

Kyle Bergeron
Regulatory Engineer
Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute